
Equity Starts at Home: Reflect, Ask, Act

Audience: Parents and caregivers

Use: Self-reflection, advocacy planning, and legacy-building

Section 1: Reflect on Your Child's Experience

Prompt: Think about your child's school experience. What feels fair? What feels unequal?

Question

Your Response

What resources does my child have access to at school?

Have I noticed any barriers to learning (language, technology, disability)?

Does my child feel seen, valued, and supported by their teachers?

What questions do I have about how decisions are made at school?

Section 2: Know Your Rights & Responsibilities

Prompt: What do I already know — and what do I want to learn — about my child's educational rights?

I Know...

I Want to Learn...

Example: My child has an IEP. Example: How to request a 504 plan.

Section 3: Build Your Advocacy Plan

Prompt: Choose one area to focus on this month. Use the prompts below to guide your next steps.

- My Focus Area: _____
- Who I'll Talk To: _____
- What I'll Ask or Share: _____

- How I'll Follow Up: _____
-

Section 4: Legacy Reflection

Prompt: What kind of educational future do I want for my child — and for all children?

- "I want my child to..."
-

- "I want schools to..."
-

Printable Companion Checklist

Title: Parent Equity Action List

Use: Quick reference for awareness, accessibility, advocacy, and community engagement

✓ Awareness

- ☐ I understand the difference between equity and equality.
 - ☐ I've identified one disparity my child may face.
 - ☐ I've reviewed school policies or data related to access and outcomes.
-

✓ Accessibility

- ☐ I've asked about language support, tech access, or accommodations.
 - ☐ I know how to request an IEP or 504 plan if needed.
 - ☐ I've explored how my child's learning needs are being met.
-

✓ Advocacy

- ☐ I've spoken with a teacher or administrator about equity concerns.
 - ☐ I've joined or considered joining a parent advisory group.
 - ☐ I've shared my story or asked questions at a school meeting.
-

✓ Community

- ☐ I've connected with other parents who care about equity.
 - ☐ I've looked into local organizations or events that support education justice.
 - ☐ I've taken one action this month to support accessibility or equity.
-